WINKY and BINKY

His eyes, how they twinkled! His stature, quite puny! His costume was wrinkled! His elf was a looney! I heard him exclaim, his droll little mouth curled, "Merry Christmas to All, I'm Taking Over the World!"

'Twas the night before Christmas and all over the Pole, Not a creature was stirring,
not one single soul.

The presents were packed and loaded to go, Just waiting for Santa Brain to come start the show

The penguins were huddled all snug and chummy, not a feather was stirring as they played Gin Rummy

The whole place was quiet, silent and still, except for the clock ticking, all noises were nil.

So why were the mice out of sight, not making a peep?

They were in the bedroom. Fast, fast asleep!
